PERSONAL PROFILE

A native of Taipei, Taiwan, Shirley Wang is a graduate of the University of Southern California. She was a finalist for the International Opera Singer's Competition of Chinese Heritage and was a soloist in the Chinese Rising Stars Concert at the Carnegie Hall.

As an operatic soprano, Ms. Wang has performed with Orlando Opera, Orlando Philharmonic, Central Florida Lyric Opera, First Coast Opera, Celestial Opera, Intimate Opera, Golden West Opera, California Chamber Orchestra, Valley Symphony Orchestra, Opera Nova, Los Angeles Metropolitan Opera, Pasadena City College Concert Orchestra, USC Opera Studio, and St. Edmunds Episcopal Chorale - Orchestra. Her operatic roles include Aida, the Countess, Fiordiligi, Mrs. Alice Ford, Violetta, Cio-Cio San, Mimi, Nedda, Marguerite, Gretel, and Laetitia.

With Valley Symphony Orchestra in Los Angeles, she was featured as soprano soloist in Beethoven's Choral Fantasy. She also performed as the soprano soloist in Faure's Requiem with St. Edmund's Episcopal Chorale-Orchestra and Mozart's Exultate Jubilate with Pasadena City College Concert Orchestra. As a recitalist, Ms. Wang has been heard in California, Washington, Idaho, Boston, Long Island, and Florida. Notably, since 2016, she has created over 30 multi-media story-telling based concerts in Central Florida and in New York City.
